Members of ABAI enjoy reduced convention registration fees; subscriptions to the ABAI newsletter, Inside Behavior Analysis; free résumé posting on ABAI's Job Board; access to apply for competitively priced professional liability insurance; and access to on-line membership services through the ABAI portal. Additional benefits are described under each member type, below.

Student Members

Student membership is for full-time undergraduate or graduate students, residents, or interns.

Additional Benefit: Subscription to the journal The Behavior Analyst.

Requirement: Send proof of current full-time student, intern, or resident status, or complete the "verification of current full-time student status" section below. Students who do not send proof with their application may be classified as Affiliate members until verification is received.

VERIFICATION of current full-time student status:

 APPLICANT'S NAME

Affiliate Members

Affiliate membership is for individuals who have an interest in behavior analysis or have earned undergraduate credit but do not meet the Full member requirements. Dues help support the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in the science and practice of behavior analysis.

Additional Benefit: Subscription to the journal The Behavior Analyst.

Supporting and Sustaining Affiliate Members

Supporting and sustaining affiliate memberships provide additional support to encourage the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in the science and practice of behavior analysis through increased membership dues.

Additional Benefits: Citation in Inside Behavior Analysis and the convention program book.

Emeritus Affiliate Members

Emeritus affiliate membership is for individuals who have not been approved for full membership status and are 65 or older.

Requirement: Send verification of age when applying for this status for the first time.

Full Members

Full membership dues help support the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in behavior analysis.

Additional Benefits: Voting rights on ABAI business matters, participation in the nominations and election of officers, and a subscription to the journal The Behavior Analyst.

NOTE: Renewing Full members do not need to submit the Full membership application.

Requirements: Requires demonstration of substantive contributions to behavior analysis as outlined on the following page.

Full membership applications are reviewed for eligibility by the ABAI Application Review Committee (ARC). When first applying for full membership, applicants will be classified as Affiliate members until a decision has been made by the ARC. Payment of dues for the membership year is understood as acceptance of affiliate membership status for that membership year. Full membership is at the discretion of the ARC and is based upon materials submitted in the Full member application as understood and interpreted by the ARC. When applying for this status, submit all information indicated on the following application.

NOTE: Incomplete applications for Full member status will result in assignment of affiliate membership. Please submit documentation as described at the end of this form, as relevant. Applicants failing to submit required documentation may not reapply for full membership until the following membership cycle.

Supporting and Sustaining Full Members

Supporting and sustaining full memberships provide additional support to encourage the involvement of undergraduate and graduate students in the science and practice of behavior analysis through increased membership dues.

Additional Benefits: Citation in Inside Behavior Analysis and the convention program book.

Emeritus Full Members

Emeritus Full membership is for individuals who have been approved for full membership status and are 65 or older.

Requirement: Send verification of age when applying for this status for the first time.

Membership Discounts

ABAI offers discounted fees for members with permanent residency in countries with per capita income of less than 75% of the United States. ABAI determines members' permanent residency based on members' mailing addresses. Fees have been divided into four categories. Income per capita information was obtained from the World Bank Group, 2012. Source data are available at <http://www.worldbank.org/data/quickreference/quickref.html>. If your country is not listed to the right, but you feel you qualify for reduced dues based on the income per capita of your resident country, contact the ABAI office.

40th Annual Convention

McCormick Place, Chicago, IL, May 23–27, 2014

Seminar on Leadership and Cultural Change

Hyatt Regency McCormick Place, Chicago, IL, May 23, 2014

ABAI's 2014 seminar on leadership and cultural change is designed to aid organizations and leaders to create new models of stewardship and open opportunities for innovation while adjusting to growing social upheaval, technological advances, and environmental concerns, as well as crises in the global economy, health, education, and environment. It will address how behavior analysis finds common ground with other sciences by investigating the behavior of leaders who influence organizations and society and how collaborative research among academic groups, businesses, and communities can affect the wellbeing of populations and forestall crises. The seminar takes place all day Friday, May 23 and its leadership theme will continue through the annual convention.

Terms, Conditions, and Total Payment

Transfer and Cancellation Policies

Refund requests received after deadlines, except for those made as a result of a death in the immediate family, will not be granted. Cancellation requests should be submitted to ABAI in writing.

Registration transfers (attendee replacements) and cancellations for the 40th Annual Convention in Chicago, IL, received by midnight (EDT) May 1, 2014, will be processed in the ABAI office prior to the convention. Cancellations made after this date will not be refunded. Transfer requests made after May 1 will be processed on site at the registration desk. There will be a $75 processing fee for transfers and cancellations.

Method of Payment

Full payment must be received in the ABAI office before services will be granted. Payment may be made by check, credit card, or money order in U.S. dollars. Make checks payable to ABAI. Returned checks will be subject to a $35 fee. Overpayments and discounts not taken will be considered donations to ABAI unless a request for a refund is made in writing. Email requests to mail@abainternational.org

Registration Fees

All conference registrants, including students, must be members for the 2014 calendar year in order to receive member rates. All presenters, including invited presenters and authors, must register for the event(s) at which they are presenting.

Name Badges

Name badges are required for entry into all ABAI events and presentation rooms and for access to ABAI on-site services, including bookstores, exhibits, and job placement services. Registrants receive a name badge on site. Replacement name badges will be provided for $35. Your name badge will be printed with your preferred first name (nickname) in addition to your full first and last name and affiliation, as specified in your contact information.

Special Accommodations

ABAI makes accommodations for event attendees with disabilities. We ask that any individual requiring special arrangements submit information about their needs in writing to convention@abainternational.org and follow up with the ABAI office accordingly.

For the autism conference in Louisville, KY, arrangements are not guaranteed for requests made after midnight (EST) December 18, 2013.

For the annual convention in Chicago, IL, arrangements are not guaranteed for requests made after midnight (EDT) April 12, 2014.
