NEW IN 2020

Invited Presenter Role Limits
Serving as an invited presenter does not count toward the presenter role limits. All invited presenters may serve as a chair or discussant in one additional presentation, as a presenter or panelist for one additional paper, symposium, or panel, and as a presenter for two posters.

Statement of IRB Approval
Submissions in the basic research or applied research domains will be required to affirm that their “completed submission is verification that all procedures described in this presentation conformed to the internationally recognized standards set forth for research involving human or animal subjects.”

Diversity Presentations
Three additional invited sessions that specifically address diversity-related topics have been allocated to the invited track. The Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Board coordinator will organize these three sessions. Sessions will have an area assigned as appropriate, but will not count toward that area’s presentation limits.

REMINNDERS

Poster Sessions
There will be three 2-hour poster session from 1:00 pm–3:00 pm on Saturday, Sunday, and Monday.

Business Meetings
Business meetings will be from 7:00 pm–7:50 pm on Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. There will be no morning business meetings, except for a few closed meetings, and the ABAI Business Meeting, which is Monday at 7:00 am.

Membership and Registration Requirements
Submissions will only be eligible for presentation once all presenting authors, chairs, discussants, and panelists have become current (2019–2020) members of ABAI and registered for the 2020 annual convention.

At the final step of the submission process, you will be informed of the membership status of all relevant submission participants; please remind participants who are not current members to complete their membership application before the call for submissions deadline.

Failure to become a member, register for the convention, or make a scheduled presentation could result in the denial of submission privileges for the following convention year.

Submission and Presentation Language
All submissions and presentations must be made in English.

SABA Senior Student Presenter Grant Application Deadline
To be considered for a SABA Senior Student Presenter Grant, all submissions must be made by the close of call for submissions on October 30, 2019, including posters.
ROLE LIMITS AND SCHEDULING CRITERIA

Role Limits

To limit the number of concurrent and potentially conflicting presentations, and to increase the impact and prestige of the poster sessions, individuals may serve in the following roles:

- presenting author on no more than two posters, and
- presenting author/panelist on no more than one oral presentation (paper, individual symposium presentation, or panel), and
- chair or discussant on no more than one symposia or panel.

The following roles do not count toward the role limits:

- Poster session chair
- Professional Development Series (PDS) panelist
- Reunion chair
- Workshop presenting authors

Scheduling Criteria

The Program Board can consider only the presenting author, chair, panelists, and discussant of each submission when resolving scheduling conflicts.

The Program Board will reject submissions with participants exceeding the role limits outlined above. Consideration of which presentation to reject when a participant has surpassed his or her limit will be made with attention to the order in which submissions were received.

Author Limits

- Papers, posters, individual symposium presentations, workshops, and Expo posters must have one presenting author and no more than seven additional authors.
- Panels must have exactly three panelists and one chair.
- Paper sessions, symposia, panels, business meetings, and reunions must each have one chair.
- Symposia, depending on the number of individual presentations, may have one discussant.

Role Descriptions

Oral Presentation. Any panel, paper, or symposium. Oral presentations should reflect work that is well advanced and is presented in an integrated way.

Presenting Author. This individual must become an ABAI member, register for the convention and make the presentation. This person does not need to be the first author. Presenting authors are required for individual symposium presentations, posters, and papers. This role does count toward the oral presentation limit.

Author. This individual is not required to register for the convention or become a member, but his or her name will be published in the convention program. Authors are optional for papers, posters, individual symposium presentations, and expo posters. This role does not count toward the oral presentation limit.

Panelist. This individual must become an ABAI member, register for the convention, and participate in the panel. This individual participates in an audience-driven question and answer format session following a short abstract presentation delivered by the chair. This role does count toward the oral presentation limit; however, PDS panels do not count toward the oral presentation limit.

Chair. This individual must become an ABAI member, register for the convention, and participate in the presentation. The chair oversees the session, delivers a short abstract summarizing the session, introduces the first presenter, acts as a timekeeper, and ensures the session ends on time. This role does count toward the chair/discussant limit.
Poster Chair. The poster chair is responsible for attending his or her assigned poster session to oversee the session and ensure that all the discussants are present for their area. This person should be prepared to act as discussant if needed. This role does not count toward the chair/discussant limit.

Paper Session Chair. This individual must become an ABAI member, register for the convention, and participate in the presentation. Area coordinators assign one of the presenting authors from the session to this role. The chair oversees the session, introduces the presenters, acts as a timekeeper, and ensures the session ends on time. This role does not count toward the chair/discussant limit.

Reunion Chair. This individual must become an ABAI member, register for the convention, and attend the reunion. This role does not count toward the chair/discussant limit.

Business Meeting Chair. This individual must become an ABAI member, register for the convention, and attend the business meeting. This role does not count toward the chair/discussant limit.

Poster Discussant. The role of poster discussant is to attend assigned sessions, listen to the explanation of presenters about their posters, ask questions about the studies, and provide feedback on presentation style, poster layout, and the content of the study being presented. This role does not count toward the chair/discussant limit.
SUBMISSION DOMAIN DESCRIPTIONS

Basic research is research that primarily contributes to knowledge about fundamental principles of behavior, and whose target is selected on scientific goals rather than social significance. It may include research on any species, including human verbal behavior, but it must be theoretically driven, data-based, and carried out under the auspices of a research protocol. Premium is placed on experimental control.

Applied research is research that primarily contributes to knowledge about how or why interventions, service delivery systems, or their components, achieve desired behavior change. Target behavior is selected based on its social significance. Interventions must be designed to improve performance or adaptive functioning of individuals or behavioral systems, and may include the development of new technology for behavior change. It must be data based and carried out under the auspices of a research protocol.

Service delivery is an intervention-driven activity to produce desired behavior change rather than to identify how or why interventions, service delivery systems, or their components achieve those goals. It may include the extension of existing technology to new settings or populations, and public policy, regulatory, ethical, and other topics related to service-delivery issues.

Theory refers to integrative and conceptual statements about the organization of facts, their interpretation, or their quantitative analysis. It may include historical and philosophical analyses and reviews of behavioral topics. Literature reviews should be submitted under this domain.
PROGRAM AREA DESCRIPTIONS

The Applied Animal Behavior (AAB) program includes the dimensions of applied behavior analysis as they pertain to matters of importance for non-human animals. Topic areas may include (but are not limited to) issues related to enrichment, welfare and management, conservation, training, and treatment of problem behavior. Theoretical discussions related to these topics are also included.

The Autism (AUT) program includes work specifically related to the assessment and treatment of learning and behavioral characteristics of individuals diagnosed with autism spectrum disorders (ASDs) and related symptomatology. This work may be analytical in nature (research incorporating experimental controls), or it may illustrate practice or ethical issues specific to treatment of individuals with ASDs.

The Behavioral Pharmacology and Neuroscience (BPN) program includes research on the behavioral effects of drugs and other neurobiological manipulations as well as research on the neurobiological substrates of behavior.

The Clinical/Family/Behavioral Medicine (CBM) program includes the integration of behavior analytic strategies, methods, and theory into areas traditionally encompassed by clinical psychology, family therapy, and behavioral medicine. Content relevant to the area includes the application of behavioral principles and behavior-analytic basic research relevant to these domains.

The Community, Social, and Sustainability Issues (CSS) program area includes conceptual analyses, empirical research, and service-delivery projects related to larger-scale community, sociocultural and sustainability issues, including work supporting social and environmental justice.

The Developmental Disabilities (DDA) program includes research and activities in the care of persons with neurodevelopmental, intellectual, and related disabilities other than those presentations fitting within the autism program area. These reported activities include basic research, applied research, service delivery, and theory/conceptual topics.

The Behavioral Development (DEV) program includes research and theory designed to identify environmental variables that establish and interact with behavioral development and show how these variables relate to behavioral principles and instructional procedures in other areas, and how they can be manipulated to promote desirable developmental outcomes.

The Experimental Analysis of Behavior (EAB) program includes experimental analyses of human and animal behavior in laboratory and field settings. EAB research involves experimentally manipulated independent variables and addresses questions related to the fundamental nature of behavior-environment relations.

The Education (EDC) program includes presentations addressing variables that impact students' learning of academic content, management of student behavior within a variety of educational settings, and the practices of educators.

The Organizational Behavior Management (OBM) program includes workplace applications derived from behavior analytic principles. The focus is typically on direct interventions to improve employee performance through behavior change, as well as large-scale systemic analyses and interventions to address work processes and other environmental and social factors that may influence organizational behavior.

The Philosophical, Conceptual, and Historical Issues (PCH) program includes topics on the foundations—past, present, and future—of behavior analysis as a system, science, and practice, as well as comparisons and contrasts with the natural and historical sciences and humanities.

The Teaching Behavior Analysis (TBA) program includes theoretical/conceptual, applied research, and service delivery presentations related to teaching the science and practice of behavior analysis, including to individuals, academic/university faculty, clinical staff, parents, other professionals, and the broader community.

The Verbal Behavior (VRB) program includes conceptual, experimental, and applied presentations with roots in Skinner’s (1957) analysis of verbal behavior. Topics may include mands, tacts, intraverbals, echoics, textual, listener behavior, autoclitics, multiple control, self-editing, and problem solving/thinking. VRB presentations emphasize analysis of controlling variables for verbal responses of humans and nonhumans.

SUBMISSION TYPE DESCRIPTIONS

Posters
Posters are physical displays of information, usually reporting empirical research. Submissions must demonstrate that the work to be reported has scientific merit and is well advanced. Data-based posters, which require a graph or chart of data, will receive preference. Posters in the applied research or basic research domains require a data attachment.

Poster sessions will have assigned chairs and discussants, who will attend their designated sessions, interact with presenters, and ask questions about the research in the posters they review.

Posters should be 3’10” (1,168 mm) by 3’10” (1,168 mm) to fit the provided poster boards.

Papers
Paper submissions are individual presentations, usually concerned with conceptual, historical, or methodological issues. A paper submission may report empirical research that would be too complex for effective presentation in a poster (e.g., an integrated series of experiments). All data-based and single-study paper submissions that do not fit these criteria will be rejected or reclassified as posters. Papers in the basic research or applied research domains require a data attachment.

Papers will be grouped into sessions by area coordinators and a chair will be assigned to the session from among the papers’ presenting authors. Fifty-minute paper sessions are comprised of two papers and a chair; 110-minute paper sessions are comprised of four papers and a chair.

Symposia
Symposia are organized by a chair who also moderates the session. Symposia focus on empirical, conceptual, historical, or methodological research. Symposia in the applied research or basic research domains require a data attachment.

Symposia are comprised of:

- Two presentations, a chair, and a discussant (50 minutes), or
- Three presentations and a chair (50 minutes), or
- Four presentations, a chair, and a discussant (110 minutes)

The Program Board values symposium submissions that are (a) organized around a central theme, (b) involve submissions from multiple institutions rather than from a single laboratory, department, or organization, (c) are 110-minute symposia, and (d) include submissions from multiple domains (are translational). Symposia that include presentations from multiple domains will be given priority for acceptance and scheduling. Applied research symposia are encouraged to recruit discussants with basic science expertise to increase exchange within the discipline.

Symposia should reflect work that is well advanced and is presented in an integrated way. Work that is just beginning (e.g., only baseline data provided) will not ordinarily be approved for symposium presentations, nor will a series of individual data presentations that do not provide an integrated view of advanced work. Presentations not reaching this level may be reclassified as posters (which may be posted together if they cover similar content).

Panels
Panels are 50 minutes in length and have three panelists and one chair, who is also the session’s moderator. Panels have an audience-driven question and answer format following a short abstract presentation by the chair. Time is allotted for interaction amongst the panelists and with the audience. Panels bridging basic and applied science are encouraged. The Program Board will give preference to submissions that include panelists representing multiple institutions and that are translational (include a multiple-domain focus).

Workshops
Workshops are educational sessions of three or six hours and involve the preparation of substantial training materials. Presenters limit enrollment and specify the academic level of participants. Participants are charged a materials fee (optional; set by the instructor) and tuition, which is used in part to pay workshop presenters. Accepted workshops that fail to enroll any registrants may not be submitted for consideration the following convention year.

Workshops that address topics that are in high demand by convention attendees are encouraged. When reviewing workshop submissions, the Program Board will give preference to workshops that:
• address topics that have been in high demand at recent annual conventions,
• clearly describe how they will provide supplementary materials (e.g., printed handouts, links to additional resources, sample data sheets, a copy of the presentation) to attendees, and
• clearly describe how they will use best training practices during the workshop (including behavioral skills training).

Preference will also be given to presenters whose curriculum vitae demonstrate an established track record of training experience and/or research in the topic area of the proposed workshop.

Expo Posters
The ABAI Expo is a special poster session for presentations of ABAI accredited behavior analysis training programs, internship and employment opportunities, special interest groups (SIGs), affiliated chapters, ABAI boards and committees, and behavioral associations around the world.

The fee for expo posters is $152 for a single poster and $299 for a double poster. ABAI-accredited behavior analysis training programs, ABAI chapters, and ABAI SIGs receive a single poster at no cost or an upgrade to a double poster for $142. ABAI boards and committees receive a single or double poster at no cost.

Single posters should be 3’10” (1,168 mm) by 3’10” (1,168 mm) and double posters should be 3’10” (1,168 mm) tall by 7’10” (2387 mm) wide to accommodate the provided poster boards. The Expo poster session is scheduled for Saturday evening.

Business Meetings
Business meetings allow groups to conduct business or discuss interests and activities. Business meetings are scheduled for 50 minutes and do not count toward the presenter role limits. Business meetings will be from 7:00 pm–7:50 pm on Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. There will be NO morning business meetings, except for a few closed meetings and the ABAI Business Meeting, scheduled on Monday at 7:00 am.

Reunions/Receptions
Reunions and receptions are social gatherings. Space for university programs, chapters, SIGs, retirement celebrations, and memorials will be provided at no cost; exhibitors, sponsors, and other organizations will be required to pay a room rental fee. ABAI does not provide audiovisual equipment or refreshments; reunion chairs are responsible for arranging these details directly with the venue. Reunions/receptions may only be held on Sunday evening.

POSTER SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Posters are physical displays of information, usually reporting empirical research. Submissions must demonstrate that the work to be reported has scientific merit and is well advanced. Data-based posters, which require a graph or chart of data, will receive preference. Posters in the applied research or basic research domains require a data attachment.

Poster sessions will have assigned chairs and discussants, who will attend their designated sessions, interact with presenters, and ask questions about the research in the posters they review.

Posters should be 3’10” (1,168 mm) by 3’10” (1,168 mm) to fit the provided poster boards.

Poster Title
Please use title case when entering the title, not all lowercase or all capital letters (e.g., Clinical Applications of Behavior Analysis: A Two-Part Study). Please limit titles to 15 words (200 characters). Please spell out all acronyms. No ending punctuation or quotation marks around the title are necessary.

Program Area
Select the most appropriate program area for your submission as the primary area; this information will help to avoid scheduling conflicts. For a complete description of program areas, refer to page 8.

Submission Domain
Designate each submission as basic research, applied research, service delivery, or theory, as defined on page 7. Designating a domain for each submission allows convention attendees to make informed decisions about which presentations to attend.

Abstract
The abstract must follow American Psychological Association (APA) style guidelines and be no fewer than 150 words or more than 200 words. Abstracts should begin with a sentence stating why the topic is important and end with the general conclusion, relevance, or potential impact. All acronyms must be spelled out at first mention.

Data-based submission abstracts

The abstract for a data-based presentation also must include: 1) an overview of the types of participants, 2) an overview of the types of procedures, and 3) a statement of what the data showed, with what degree of confidence.

Supporting Graph or Table
Data-based submissions must include a graphic or tabular summary of obtained data. Data-based submissions without a supporting graph or table will be rejected. The addition or correction of graphs and tables after the submission deadline will not be accepted. The data does not need to be complete at time of submission, but the abstract and graph/table must establish that the project is well under way. Graphs and tables submitted must be of professional quality and formatted according to APA Style.

Attachments must be in a PDF file format and are limited to a single page. To avoid upload errors, limit your PDF file size to 1MB.

Submissions in the basic research or applied research domains must include data attachments. Submissions in the service delivery or theory domains may include data attachments if appropriate.

Keywords or Phrases
Please submit up to four keywords (single words or two-word phrases) with each submission. Keywords should be as specific as possible (e.g., “reinforcement” or “autism” would be too general; “CPT,” “insurance,” or “telehealth” would be acceptable). Along with the domains, keywords will allow convention attendees to search for topics most relevant to them.

Funding (Optional)
Submissions must include a description of the type of funding received for this submission (e.g., NIH or other research grants).

Conflict of Interest Notice (Required)
Submissions must include a declaration and identification of any potential conflict of interest (e.g., commercial support interest for sponsors, instructors, content of instruction, or any other relationship that could reasonably be construed as a conflict of interest). Please answer "N/A" if no conflict of interest exists.

Author Information
A presenting author is required for every poster submission. Seven additional authors may be added, for a total of eight authors per submission. A detailed explanation of all roles can be found on page 5.

You will be asked to add a presenting author by searching for a contact. You must provide a last name and full or partial email address.
If the contact you search for is not found, you can add a new contact. The following information is required:

- Name
- Affiliation (if including more than one affiliation, separate with a semi-colon [e.g., Affiliation One; Affiliation Two])
- Valid email address (all correspondence will be sent to this address)
- Country
- Province/State
- Citizenship

Please do not add a new contact if the displayed email or affiliation is out of date. After completing your submission, please contact ABAI (convention@abainternational.org) with the submission ID number and the corrected information for your contact. This ensures that there will not be multiple contact records for the same person.

SABA Senior Student Presenter Grant Application (Optional)

The Society for the Advancement of Behavior Analysis (SABA) will distribute donations from the SABA Senior Student Presenter Grant fund to qualified student applicants who complete submissions before October 30, 2019.

To qualify for a SABA Senior Student Presenter Grant, the applicant must meet all of the following criteria:

  - Yes, Sunday, May 24, 2020
  - Yes, Monday, May 25, 2020

Data Assurance

Your completed submission is verification that you have permission to present the data and information in the submission. If submitting via email, type the following statement: “In making this submission, I affirm that the participants in this submission have been authorized to present the content and data and that the correct authors have been credited for the work presented.”

IRB Approval Assurance

Presentation Assurance

Your submission is acceptance of responsibility. If your submission is accepted, you guarantee that the presenting author (and chair, discussant, or panelists, as appropriate) will have current ABAI membership status, register for and attend the convention, and deliver the presentation as scheduled by the Program Board. Presenters who fail to deliver an accepted and scheduled presentation will not be permitted to present the following year.

If submitting via email, type the following statement: “If my proposed presentation is accepted, I guarantee that the presenting author will register and attend the conference and deliver the presentation, as scheduled by the Program Board.”
Conduct Assurance

By making a submission, you are granting the Association for Behavior Analysis International permission to use your likeness in photograph(s) in any and all of its publications and in any and all other media, whether now known or hereafter existing, controlled by the Association for Behavior Analysis International, in perpetuity, and for other use by the association. You will make no monetary or other claim against the Association for Behavior Analysis International for the use of the photograph(s).

Submission Confirmation
For each submission, each author listed will receive a confirmation email containing a submission ID number; said email serves as confirmation that the submission has been received and saved in the convention database. Please keep the submission ID number for your records to reference when communicating with the ABAI office. You may review the submission at any time by returning to the “Call for Submissions Entry” section of the portal. If you do not receive a submission confirmation email, do not resubmit. Please contact the ABAI office at convention@abainternational.org.
PAPER SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Paper submissions are individual presentations, usually concerned with conceptual, historical, or methodological issues. A paper submission may report empirical research that would be too complex for effective presentation in a poster (e.g., an integrated series of experiments). All data-based and single-study paper submissions that do not fit these criteria will be rejected or reclassified as posters. Papers in the basic research or applied research domains require a data attachment.

Papers will be grouped into sessions by area coordinators and a chair will be assigned to the session from among the papers’ presenting authors. Fifty-minute paper sessions are comprised of two papers and a chair; 110-minute paper sessions are comprised of four papers and a chair.

Paper Title

Please use title case when entering the title, not all lowercase or all capital letters (e.g., Clinical Applications of Behavior Analysis: A Two-Part Study). Please limit titles to 15 words (200 characters). Please spell out all acronyms. No ending punctuation or quotation marks around the title are necessary.

Program Area

Select the most appropriate program area for your submission as the primary area; this information will help to avoid scheduling conflicts. A secondary area also may be selected as additional information. For a complete description of program areas, refer to page 8.

Submission Domain

Designate each submission as basic research, applied research, service delivery, or theory, as defined on page 7. Designating a domain for each submission allows convention attendees to make informed decisions about which presentations to attend.

Individual paper submissions are appropriate for certain types of presentations (e.g., conceptual or theoretical.) Paper submissions that present data from an individual study will be reassigned as posters or rejected by the Program Board.

Data-based submissions must include a graphic or tabular summary of obtained data. Data-based submissions without a supporting graph or table will be rejected. The addition or correction of graphs and tables after the submission deadline will not be accepted. The data does not need to be complete at time of submission, but the abstract and graph/table must establish that the project is well under way. Graphs and tables submitted must be of professional quality and formatted according to APA Style.

SYMPOSIA SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Symposia are organized by a chair who also moderates the session. Symposia focus on empirical, conceptual, historical, or methodological research. Symposia in the applied research or basic research domains require a data attachment. Symposia may be submitted in one of the three following formats:

- Two presentations, a chair, and discussant (50 minutes)
- Three presentations and a chair (50 minutes)
- Four presentations, a chair, and a discussant (110 minutes)

The Program Board values symposium submissions that are (a) organized around a central theme, (b) involve submissions from multiple institutions rather than from a single laboratory, department, or organization, (c) are 110-minute symposia, and (d) include submissions from multiple domains. Symposia that include presentations from multiple domains will be given priority for acceptance and scheduling.

Symposia should reflect work that is well advanced and is presented in an integrated way. Work that is just beginning (e.g., only baseline data provided) will not ordinarily be approved for symposium presentations, nor will a series of individual data presentations that do not provide an integrated view of advanced work. Presentations not reaching this level may be reclassified as posters (which may be posted together if they cover similar content).

Applied science symposia are encouraged to recruit discussants with basic science expertise to increase exchange within the discipline.

Symposium Title

Please use title case when entering the title, not all lowercase or all capital letters (e.g., Clinical Applications of Behavior Analysis: A Two-Part Study). Please limit titles to 15 words (200 characters). Please spell out all acronyms. No ending punctuation or quotation marks around the title are necessary.

Program Area

Select the most appropriate program area for your submission as the primary area; this information will help to avoid scheduling conflicts. A secondary area also may be selected as additional information. For a complete description of program areas, refer to page 8.

Submission Domain

Designate each submission as basic research, applied research, service delivery, or theory, as defined on page 7. Designating a domain for each submission allows convention attendees to make informed decisions about which presentations to attend.

Does this submission cover multiple domains?

Translational symposia are those that cover more than one domain and are given more value by the Program Board.

Add a Chair/Add a Discussant
A chair is required for all symposia, while a discussant is optional for symposia based upon the number of presentations included in the submission. A detailed explanation of all roles can be found on page 5.

You will be asked to add a chair and discussant (if applicable) by searching for a contact. You must provide a last name and full or partial email address. If the contact you search for is not found, you can add a new contact. The following information is required:
- Name
- Affiliation (if including more than one affiliation, separate with a semi-colon [e.g., Affiliation One; Affiliation Two])
- Valid email address (all correspondence will be sent to this address)

BUSINESS MEETING SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Business meetings are scheduled to allow groups to conduct business or discuss interests and activities. Business meetings are scheduled for 50 minutes and do not count toward the role limits.

Business Meeting Title
Please use title case when entering the title, not all lowercase or all capital letters (e.g., Clinical Applications of Behavior Analysis.). Please limit titles to 15 words (200 characters) and spell out all abbreviations/acronyms. No quotation marks or ending periods are necessary.

Purpose
In no more than 200 words, please describe the purpose of this meeting.

Audience Size Anticipated
Providing this estimate will assist ABAI in scheduling your meeting in a room of suitable capacity.

• 1–25
• 26–50
• 51–75
• 76–100
• 101–200
• 201+

Scheduling
Business meetings will be from 7:00 pm–7:50 pm on Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday. There will be no morning business meetings this year, aside from the ABAI Business meeting, which is scheduled for Monday at 7:00 am.

Meeting Access
• Open: anyone can attend the meeting; listing published in program
• Closed: invitation only; listing not published in program

Potential Scheduling Conflicts
List the titles of other business meetings that should not be scheduled in conflict with your meeting. Due to the size and complexity of the convention schedule, it may not be possible to avoid all scheduling conflicts.

Keywords or Phrases
Please submit up to four keywords (single words or two-word phrases) with each submission. Keywords should be as specific as possible (e.g., “reinforcement” or “autism” would be too general; “CPT,” “insurance,” or “telehealth” would be acceptable). Along with the domains, keywords will allow convention attendees to search for topics most relevant to them.

Chair Information
A chair is required for all business meeting submissions. This person will be the primary contact regarding logistical or scheduling details.

You will be asked to add a chair by searching for a contact. You must provide a last name and full or partial email address. If the contact you search for is not found, you can add a new contact. The following information is required:

• Name
• Affiliation (if including more than one affiliation, separate with a semi-colon [e.g., Affiliation One; Affiliation Two])
• Valid email address (all correspondence will be sent to this address)
• Country
• Province/State
• Citizenship

Please do not add a new contact if the displayed email or affiliation is out of date. After completing your submission, please contact ABAI (convention@abainternational.org) with the submission ID number and the corrected information for your contact. This ensures that there will not be multiple contact records for the same person.

Presentation Assurance
Your submission is acceptance of responsibility. If your submission is accepted, you guarantee that the presenting author (and chair, discussant, or panelists, as appropriate) will have current ABAI membership status, register for and attend the convention, and deliver the presentation as scheduled by the Program Board. Presenters who fail to deliver an accepted and scheduled presentation will not be permitted to present the following year.

If submitting via email, type the following statement: “If my proposed presentation is accepted, I guarantee that the presenting author will register and attend the conference and deliver the presentation, as scheduled by the Program Board.”
Conduct Assurance

All presenters at ABAI events are expected to abide by ABAI’s Ethics and Diversity policies. Discriminatory and derogatory language with respect to individuals or groups based on their personal characteristics (e.g., race, gender) will not be tolerated in presentations at ABAI. If submitting via email, type the following statement: “All participants agree to abide by the ABAI Ethics and Diversity policies and will not use derogatory or discriminatory language.”

Photography Release

You acknowledge that while at the ABAI event, you may be photographed by an ABAI-approved photographer. By making a submission, you are granting the Association for Behavior Analysis International permission to use your likeness in photograph(s) in any and all of its publications and in any and all other media, whether now known or hereafter existing, controlled by the Association for Behavior Analysis International, in perpetuity, and for other use by the association. You will make no monetary or other claim against the Association for Behavior Analysis International for the use of the photograph(s).

Submission Receipt Confirmation

For each submission, each person listed will receive a confirmation email containing a submission ID number; said email serves as confirmation that the submission has been received and saved in the convention database. Please keep the submission ID number for your records to reference when communicating with the ABAI office. You also may review the submission at any time by returning to the “Call for Submissions Entry” section of the portal. If you do not receive a submission confirmation email, do not resubmit.
