DATE

Friday, August 3–Sunday, August 5, 2012

LOCATION

The Ohio Union at Ohio State University
1739 N. High Street
Columbus, OH 43210

ATTENDANCE

The conference is expected to attract over 500 attendees.

Attendees will include scientists, applied researchers, undergraduate and graduate students, teachers, parents, and consultants.

Registration is open to association members and nonmembers through the association's website. Credentialed members of the news media may attend free of charge with advanced approval. Contact William Heward (contact information above) for details.

PROGRAMS

The program will feature prominent figures in behavior analysis, environmental organizations, business, and government. Invited addresses and panels, research and project posters, and interactive brainstorming sessions will give conference attendees a unique opportunity to interact with people with diverse backgrounds who are interested in working on one of the greatest challenges to face civilization since the last ice age.

In addition to invited presentations by distinguished scholars, attendees will have the opportunity to review current research at a poster session.
